

$100 billion in daily liquidity. Trusted safety and security.

The world's largest regulated FX marketplace:

- A global product suite of 49 futures and 32 options based on 20 currencies
- More than 100 years of proven safety and security with CME Clearing
- Electronic access around the world, around the clock on CME Globex
- Offset or initiate new trading positions in a completely anonymous trading environment with transparent pricing
- Access to a diverse base of global market participants including banks, hedge funds, proprietary trading firms and individual traders

For FX traders who demand products and services designed for the rapid pace of a global marketplace, CME Group delivers. Our high-volume markets offer the deep liquidity you need, with more than $100 billion in daily notional value. As the largest and most diverse regulated FX marketplace in the world, CME Group offers listed FX products through CME Globex. And coming soon, we'll offer comprehensive clearing services for OTC FX trades through CME ClearPort — an open-access, platform-agnostic, post-execution clearing service.
